Saturday, 10 November 9am to 2.30pm – Community Celebration

Yackandandah Health is celebrating what it means to be part of the Yackandandah and district communities. Come and join us for this free event.

For the kids: old fashioned games, competitions, baby animals, roving circus, toy making and more

For families: health and wellbeing talks, music, steam engines, Men's Shed demonstrations, electric cars and bikes, competitions, health checks

Other: Celebrity guests: Jackie French, author and 2015 Senior Australian of the Year and Costa Georgiadis from Gardening Australia, market stalls, food, Indigo FM
Don't forget the colouring-in competition for children 10 years and under.

Saturday, 10 November 8pm – Living Memory

Whether you missed it or experienced it last November, don't miss this year's special return performance of Living Memory. This series of monologues tells the life stories of some of Yackandandah Health's aged care residents, performed by the Yackandandah Theatre Company and supported by Arts Yackandandah. Tickets on sale soon.

Yackandandah Health invites your children to take part in a free colouring-in competition in the lead in to our Community Celebration on Saturday, 10 November.

There are prizes in the following age group categories:

Under 5, 6 to 8 and 8 to 10 years.

The competition will be judged and prizes presented by children's author, Jackie French at 11am as part of the Community Celebration.

An entry form has been sent home with the school newsletter tonight and are also available from the school office.

Offering Classes in Circus, Dance and Drama for all ages.
